DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference sign(s) mentioned in the description: "axis L" and "C" shaped section are not shown in the drawing. A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. This application does not contain an abstract of the disclosure as required by 37 CFR 1.72(b). An abstract on a separate sheet is required.
3. The disclosure is objected to because a copy of the application No. V193U000020 (page 1 lines 15-16) should be provided in order to compare it with the present invention.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 3727

5. Claims 16-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 16, "similar containers", "cage-like" and "similar member" are indefinite terms. And "the inside edges" (line 14) lack antecedent basis. Also, "conventional diameter" of the bottle (line 11) is indefinite.

In claim 18, it is contrary between claim 16 and claim 18. Claims 16, lines 10-11, sets forth that the inner diameter is slightly larger than the conventional diameter of the bottle, but claim 18, which depends on claim 16, sets forth that the inner diameter is smaller than traditional bottle diameter.

In claim 28, it is unclear what is the structure of "transverse chevron groove".

Double Patenting

6. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

Art Unit: 3727

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321© may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

7. Claims 16, 17, 19, 21 and 22 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over the claim of U.S. design Patent No. D455,707S. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the subject matters claimed in claims 16-29 is inherently disclosed in the design patent No. D455,707S.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or

Art Unit: 3727

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

9. Claims 16 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Call (1,419,488). Call disclose, in fig. 1, a support structure for a bottle comprising a three dimensional frame, anchoring means 12, a rear anchoring post 9, two substantially symmetrical and diverging arms 15, the lower ends of said arm converging and being reciprocally joined to form a lower appendix 13, and inside edges of said arms having a span that is continuously increasing along a first portion and decreasing along a second portion. The first portion is directed upwardly and forwardly, and the second portion is directed downward and forwardly, which portions are connected and bent along a curved space line with no sharp bends. The supporting frame further comprises a hole 16 located along the arms.

10. Claims 16 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rogers (6,193,202). Rogers disclose, in figs. 1 and 2, a support structure for a bottle comprising a three dimensional frame, anchoring means 28, a rear anchoring post 32, two substantially symmetrical and diverging arms 26, the lower ends of said arm converging and being reciprocally joined to form a lower appendix 22, and inside edges of said arms having a span that is continuously increasing along a first portion and decreasing along a second portion. The first portion is directed upwardly and forwardly, and the second portion is directed downward and forwardly, which portions are connected and bent along a curved space line with no sharp bends.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

11. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

12. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Call or Rogers. Call or Rogers does not disclose the inner diameter of the support structure equal to approximately 45mm. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the Call or Rogers support structure having the inner diameter size above, since it has been held that discovering an optimum value of a result effective variable involves only routine skill in the art. In re Boesch, 617 F. 2d 272, 205 USPQ 215 (CCPA 1980).

13. Claims 22, 23, 25-27 and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rogers in view of Joffe (5,513,885). Rogers does not disclose the support structure having resilient means for gripping the bottle. Joffe teaches a bottle support structure having resilient means 32 for gripping bottle. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the Rogers bottle support structure with resilient gripping means, as taught by Joffe, in order to facilitate the capability to firmly hold the bottle.

14. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
